

illinois state university university
galleries
college of fine arts

110 center for the visual arts
c a m p u s b o x 5 6 0 0
n o r m a l , i l 6 1 7 9 0 - 5 6 0 0

telephone 309.438.5487
www.cfa.ilstu.edu/galleries

exhibitions on view at University Galleries
of Illinois State University

University Galleries will feature the following exhibitions during the Illinois Art Education Association annual conference, held November 10-12, 2011, in Normal at the Marriott Hotel and the Illinois State University Center for the Visual Arts. University Galleries is located on Beaufort St. between University and School streets. Please call 309.438.5487 for additional information.

Irena Knezevic: Here Comes the Darkness

October 29 – December 18, 2011

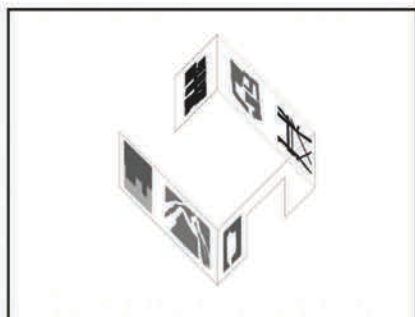

Knezevic's multi-media, multi-room exhibition at University Galleries features an architectural labyrinth within which photographs, videos, sculptures, and posters are displayed. These works engage the public, making them active agents in the construction of meaning.

Todd DeVriese: Systems of Mapping

October 29 – December 18, 2011

This memorial exhibition for ISU alumnus Todd DeVriese (1960 – 2010) features six of the artist's most recent mixed media works. Statements from DeVriese's students, mentors, and collaborators are included. Organized by Normal Editions Workshop.

Uwe Jonas: Colored Items

October 29 – December 18, 2011

Uwe Jonas, visiting artist in the School of Art, exhibits six wall paintings covering the entirety of the Gallery 2.5 project space.

Art Education Student Exhibition

October 29 - December 2, 2011

This exhibition features the work of Art Education students who completed or will complete requirements for certification between Fall 2010 and Spring 2012.