

We're so happy that you're submitting work for the 2019-2020 IAEA Student Art Show!!!

Here are the details...

Teachers:

- You must be a certified art teacher K-12
- You must teach at a public, private or charter school
- Artwork must be created this year
- Artwork must be created at school during the regular hours in art class

Deadlines:

- Submissions open: March 1, 2019
- Submission closes: Monday, April 22 @ midnight
- Notification:
  - If your student's artwork is selected, you will be notified by Tuesday, May 14, 2019
  - If your students' artwork was not selected, you will be notified by Tuesday, May 21st

Submitting:

- Select up to 10 of your students' works
  - Artwork must not exceed 18" x 24"
  - Artwork must not be thicker than 3/4" or on stretched canvas thicker than 3/4"

- Photograph the artwork and crop the images, so they are ready for publication & a slide show if selected by the judges
- Label your images one at a time with the following information, please:
  - Teacher's first & last name, School's name, Student's first & last name, student's grade level, medium
    - Ie. Susan Tiemstra, Prospect, Sally Jones, 3rd, watercolor

Curating the show:

- our intent is to showcase as many different art teachers and their students as possible from K-12 with works that exemplify best practice throughout the state
  - so, that more teachers are represented throughout the state, please know that you may only have 1 piece selected.

Judging the show:

- Our judges look for work that demonstrates creativity, originality, craftsmanship, and personality or voice
- Our judging is digital and blind regarding the artists' identity.
  - Please make sure that your images do not have any identifying information on them
  - Only the "medium" is known to the judges

If selected:

- You will be asked to provide a short paragraph lesson description & a Student Artist Statement (either written or video)
- Students' artwork will be professionally matted.

Recognition:

- Your student and you will be recognized at the 2019 IAEA Conference Student Art Show Reception and Ceremony
  - Q Center, St. Charles, IL
  - Saturday, November 23, 2019
  - 1pm-3pm

The Traveling IAEA Student Art Show:

- Your student's piece will travel to locations throughout the state of Illinois until September of 2020